

Welcome to Commerce Insight! Jonathan Green's Online Ordering and Information System!

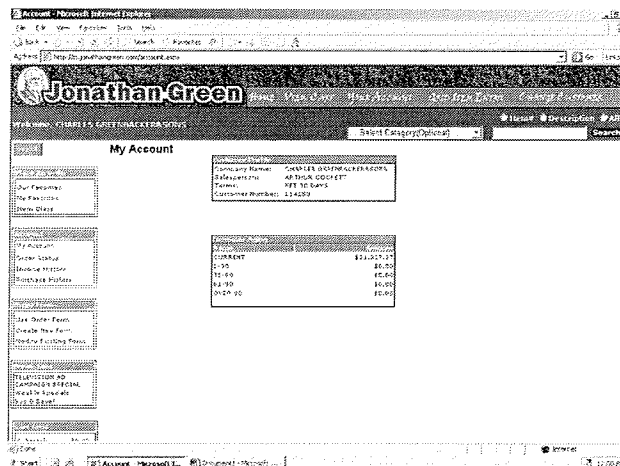

If you have made it this far than you are at the screen below. If you don't have a Dealer Login and would like to establish one, or if you have forgotten your Dealer Login and/or Password please email us at Email@jonathangreen.com send us the name of your company, address, contact person and account number (not necessary, but helpful) and we will call the number that we have on file and help you set up an online account.

When you do have your "username" and "password" please enter them and CLICK on "Login". If you just hit enter after you enter your information it will not work. Once you login you will see the following screen. Please note that above logout on the left hand side you will see Welcome, "NAME OF YOUR BUSINESS".

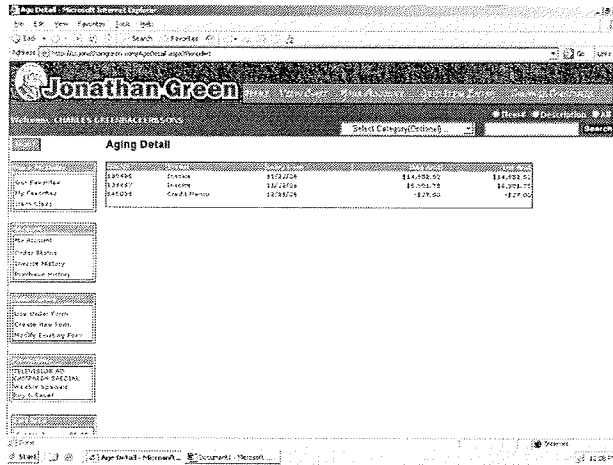

Click on "My account" under account on the left hand side. You will see your account information. A Customer Profile and Customer Aging information.

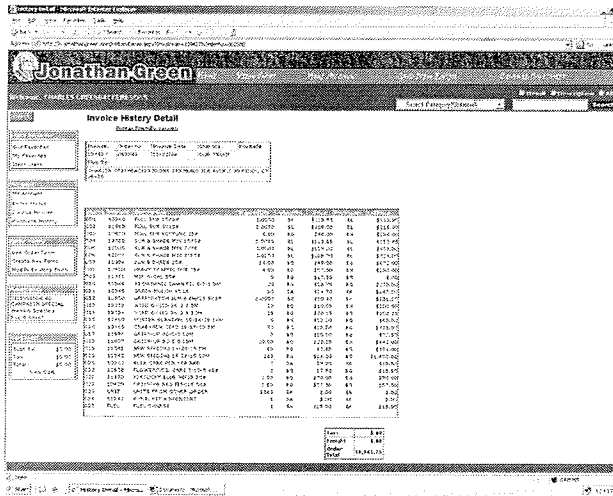

Commerce Insight Jonathan Green's Online Ordering and Information System

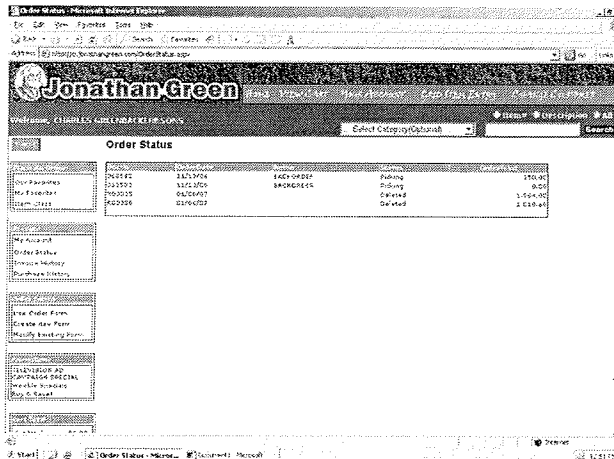

If you have any aging information you can click on the bucket name to the left of the amount and it will bring up the detailed aging information for that bucket.

If you wanted to go even further and find out what makes up a specific invoice or credit memo just click on the document number and it will bring up that invoice for your review.

You can even print out a "Printer Friendly Version" for easy printing. Now you have access to all of your open invoices and all the detail of that purchase. Now click on "Order Status" on the left. It will bring up the following screen. Now if you have any open orders you can click on any document number to bring it up.
